Act No. XV of 1920

An Act to constitute Indian Red Cross Society

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the future administration of the various monies and gifts received from the public for the purpose of medical and other aid to the sick and wounded and other purposes of a like nature during the late war, and more especially for the administration of the monies and property held by a Committee known as the Joint War Committee, Indian Branch, of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem in England and the British Red Cross Society.

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to constitute an Indian Red Cross Society with a view to the continuation in peace time, on a wider basis and with a wider purpose, of the work carried on by the said Committee during the war, and to provide for the affiliation therewith of other Societies and Bodies having similar objects; it is hereby enacted as follows:

1. This Act may be called the Indian Red Cross Society Act 1920.

2. There shall be constituted by this Act a Society to be known as the Indian Red Cross Society (hereinafter called the Society). The first Members of the Society shall be nominated by persons who immediately before the commencement of this Act were members of the Joint War Committee, Indian Branch, of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem in England and the British Red Cross Society (hereinafter called the Committee) at a meeting to be summoned and held for the purpose in accordance with the usual practice of the Committee within three months from the commencement of this Act. The number of Members to be so nominated shall not be less than twenty five or more than fifty.
3. The Committee shall also at the same meeting appoint from among the Members nominated under Section 2, the Managing Body of the Society (henceinafter called the Managing Body), the Members of which shall hold office as such until a new Managing Body is appointed as hereinfater provided. The number of members of the Managing Body shall not be less then ten or more than thirty.

4. The first Members of the Society and all persons who may hereafter become Members thereof so long as they continue to be, are hereby constituted a Body corporate under the name of the Indian Red Cross Society, and the said Body shall have perpetual succession and a common seal with power to hold and acquire property, movable and immovable, and shall sue and be sued by the said name.

4A. The President of India shall be the President of the Society (hereinafter referred to as the President).

4B.(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 3, the Managing Body shall consist of the following members namely: -

a) Chairman to be nominated by the President for such term as he may deem fit;

b) Six members to be nominated by the President for such term as he may deem fit;

c) Twelve members to be elected by the State Branch Committees for a term of two years in accordance with the rules made by the Managing Body under section 5;

Provided that not more than one member shall be elected by any State Branch Committee;

Provided further that no member, elected under this section, shall hold office continuously for more than two terms.
(2) The Managing Body existing immediately before the commencement of the Indian Red Cross Society (Amendment Act, 1992 shall cease to exist and the Chairman and all the members of the said Body shall be deemed to have vacated their offices on such commencement and the Managing Body shall be reconstituted within a period of six months from such commencement in accordance, with the provisions of Sub-Section (1) and until it is so reconstituted, the President may authorize any person or body to persons to exercise and discharge all the powers, function and duties which may, under the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder, be exercised or discharged by or on behalf of the Managing Body.

4C. (1) The Managing Body shall, with the previous approval of the President appoint a Secretary General and a Treasurer of the Society.

(2) The term of office and the conditions of service of the Secretary General and a Treasurer of the Society.

Provided that the term of office and conditions of service of the Secretary General and the Treasurer may be varied in like manner by the Managing Body.

(3) Not withstanding anything contained in any contract or agreement and notwithstanding any judgment, decree or order to any court, tribunal or authority or anything contained in any other provision of this Act or the rules made thereunder, the term of office and conditions of any person appointed as Secretary General of the Society at any time before the commencement of the Indian Red Cross Society (Amendment) Act, 1992 may be varied by the Managing Body with the previous approval of the President.

4D. (1) The powers and functions of the Chairman shall be –

(a) To preside over the meetings of the Managing Body and all other Committees set up by the Managing Body of which he is the Chairman;
(b) To re-appropriate, on the advice of the Treasurer of the Society, budgetary allocation from one major head of account to another major head of account;

(c) to authorize, on the advice of the Treasurer of the Society, expenditure on items not contemplated in the Annual Budget of the Society, subject to the availability of funds;

(d) to institute, if necessary, disciplinary proceedings against officers of and above the rank of Deputy Secretary of the Society;

Provided that the final decision on the basis of the disciplinary proceedings so instituted shall be taken.

(i) In case of the Secretary General of the Society, with the previous approval of the President.

(ii) In other cases, with the previous approval of the Managing Body.

(2) The powers and functions of the Vice-Chairman shall be

(a) to exercise the powers and perform the functions conferred on the Chairman under sub-section (1) or delegated to him under sub-section (3), in the absence of the Chairman on leave or on tour abroad or for any other similar reasons;

(b) to act as ex-officio member in all the Committees or sub-Committees appointed by the Managing Body.

(3) The Chairman and the Vice-Chairman shall, in addition to the powers exercisable by them under the sub-section (1) and (2), exercise such other financial and administrative powers as may be delegated to them by the Managing Body in accordance with rules made by it under Section 5.

4E. (1) If, at any time, the President is of the opinion –

(a) that there has been gross failure in the management of the affairs of the Society by the Managing Body; or

Powers of the President to supersede the Managing Body
(b) that the Managing Body is acting in a manner which is prejudicial to carrying out the objectives of the Society.

The President may, by order in writing supersede the Managing Body for such period, not exceeding six months as may be specified in the order.

Provide that before issuing an order under this sub-section, the President shall give a reasonable opportunity to the Managing Body to show cause why it should not be superseded and shall consider the explanations and objections, if any, of the Managing Body.

(2) Upon the issue of an order under sub-section (1) superseding the Managing Body:

(a) all the members of the Managing Body shall, as from the date of suppression, vacate their offices as such;

(b) all the powers, functions and duties which may, under the provision of this Act or the rule made thereunder, be exercised or discharged by or on behalf of the Managing Body shall, until the Managing Body is reconstituted, be exercised and discharged by such person or body or persons as the President may appoint in this behalf.

(3) On the expiration of the period of super session specified in the order issued under sub-section (1) the President may extend the period or super session for a further period not exceeding six months as may be recommended by the person or body of persons appointed under clause (b) or sub-section (2);

Provided that the President may, at any time before the expiration of the period of supersession, whether as originally specified under sub-section (1) or extended under this sub-section, take such steps as are necessary to reconstitute the Managing Body in accordance with the provisions of Section 4B.
5. (1) The Managing Body may, with the approval of the President make Rule for the management, functions, control and procedure of the Society. The Rules may provide among other matters for the following namely:
